Item 8.01*Other Events.

The Chemours Company (“Chemours” or the “Company”) today reported that Mark P. Vergnano, President and Chief Executive Officer, entered into a trading plan (the “Plan”) in accordance with Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Plan, executed during the Company’s open trading window, is set to be in effect from May 8, 2018 to December 1, 2020 to facilitate the exercise of 574,302 expiring options, and to sell the underlying shares. These expiring stock options were issued to Mr. Vergnano while he was with E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company (“DuPont”) and were converted to Chemours options in connection with the Company’s separation from DuPont. Mr. Vergnano entered into the Plan to allow for an orderly exercise of the options prior to their expiration as part of his personal long-term financial planning. Any transactions under the Plan will be publicly reported through Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Other officers of the Company may have entered into Rule 10b5-1 trading plans related to the Company’s shares and may enter into such plans in the future. The Company undertakes no obligation to report Rule 10b5-1 trading plans adopted by any of its officers or directors, or to report any modifications or terminations of any publicly announced plans, except to the extent required by law.
